

Community Church of Joy

Glendale, Arizona

CLIENT:
Community Church of Joy

DESCRIPTION:
In its initial phases, the master plan for Community Church of Joy incorporated a youth center and recreation building into the existing campus. Accommodating 700 students, the youth center was designed to house concerts, worship and safe “hang out,” while the recreation building holds a multi-purpose gymnasium with a final build-out of 32,842 sq. ft.

Future phases will include a high school and elementary school.
