Todd & Associates worked with The Wolff Company to develop this 3.81-acre active adult senior living community in Oxnard, California. This 136-unit independent living community has 2 guest suites and is housed within two 4-story buildings carefully integrated into the established character of the local community.

Residents can enjoy a resort-style pool and spa with several patios for socializing and lounging. Other amenities included are a 2-story clubhouse with a 23-seat theater, fitness center, bistro, and private dining room. There is also a wellness center, art room, and conference room.
