Located in Washoe County's most affluent submarket and adjacent to Reno's main transportation corridors, Revel Rancharrah is a 4-story, 146-unit independent living community. The Reno Tahoe International Airport, Reno-Spark Convention Center, and the Meadowood Mall are within a short 3-mile drive. The architecture is a contemporary craftsman design with a southwest influence.

To accommodate the growing trend of active adult living, they offer an array of amenities, including a clubhouse with theater, salon, wellness/fitness center, art studio, and indoor pool house. Partnering with celebrity Chef Beau MacMillan, Revel Rancharrah offers a variety of creative dishes with multiple dining options, including a bistro, a private dining room, and at-home dining.
