Todd & Associates worked with our long-time client, The Wolff Company, to design a senior living community in Lacey, Washington. The 3-story, award-winning, independent living community consists of 137 private suites presented in 4 unique floor plans. A centrally located single-story clubhouse anchors two residential wings.

Luxurious amenities include a state-of-the-art fitness center, full-service salon, spa, pub/cocktail lounge, theater, and art studio. Residents can casually dine in the bistro or enjoy a more formal dinner in the modern-american restaurant. Outdoor space includes a patio for dining/lounging and beautifully landscaped courtyards. The contemporary craftsman architecture melds nicely with its tree-lined site and natural wooded surroundings.
